If you have any questions, please add them to the chat! We will be capturing all questions and responding, just in case we don't get to them during this session.

from Susanne Caro to All Panelists:
Vicki, do you keep records of what you weeded in case you retire?

from Jennifer Morgan to All Participants:
This is a great tip (agency chronology), Vicki -- Andriot helps!

from Charlie (she-her) Amiot to All Participants:
My tip is crying. Also fire. But that's mostly because of our current catalog setup.

from Leah Grote to All Participants:
@Charlie big mood

from Jennifer Morgan to All Participants:
Oh Charlie . . . :-)

from Sarah Dobransky to All Participants:
We get SO many electronic records per month (700-1000). I am struggling on how to manage them as well as trying to figure out which electronic items to deselect. My predecessor just chose everything that was available electronically!

from Susanne Caro to All Participants:
Charlie- I can think on one library that had that method- just not on purpose

from Jessica Fomalont to All Participants:
Andriot is also available online: <https://catalog.hathitrust.org/Record/102435912>

from Charlie (she-her) Amiot to All Participants:

@Susanne, we have an area that is iffy as to whether it leaks. I'm probably not moving things away as quickly as I should.

from Megan Minta to All Participants:

If you are undertaking a large weeding project in your library, please keep GPO's needs in mind! We are particularly keen to locate Serial Set volumes for our joint digitization project with the Law Library of Congress. GPO Needs List: <https://libguides.fdlp.gov/gpodigitization>

from Charlie (she-her) Amiot to All Participants:

The Bluebook is the devil.

from Kate Irwin-Smiler to All Participants:

hush your mouth Charlie!

from Kate Irwin-Smiler to All Participants:

from Charlie (she-her) Amiot to All Participants:

@Kate, I mean I love it intellectually, but it's also the worst and very stuck up on digital materials and needs to enter this century.

from Kelly Seifert to Host, Presenter & Panelists:

from Kate Irwin-Smiler to All Participants:

@charlie, not gonna disagree about it being very slow to change, but sometimes when it changes it gets worse, so... IDK there.

from Charlie (she-her) Amiot to All Participants:

@Kate, truth. That foil logo was a *choice.*

from Kate Irwin-Smiler to All Participants:

(Any further discussion really requires adult beverages.)

In-house individuals that can repair materials are becoming quite rare.

from Susanne Caro to All Participants:
I don't think there has been a hands-on webinar, but something on repairing materials would be good.
